

Anthony Donovan

Manager, trainer, consultant, documentarian

Education

Herbert H. Lehman College (NYC University), Registered Nurse (RN), Bachelor of Science (BSN), 1979

Publications/works:

Documentaries: (short) 93 yr. old pasta maker in the Bronx, 4 generations, 2009. (short) Middle East Ambassadors to President of US, 2009. Keziah Lain Family Farm, 2008. "Letter to Iran" (short), 2008. Los Cintron and Arturo, flamenco artists (2 shorts), 2008. On China and our Relationship, 2007. On Tibet (short), 2007. Dialogues, 2004 (Winner of "Best Political Documentary" in New York's IIFVF).

All available on website: www.anthonydonovan.com

Authored: "Letter to an Islamic Fundamentalist" 1993 and 2002. Winning against Terrorism, 1983, updated 2007. (Book) World Peace? based on Interviews with Foreign Diplomats, 1983. World Peace? (book sequel, unpublished, 1993. Feature Film script (and producer), Los San Patricios of 1847, 1994-96

Employment history/volunteer work

NY Licensed guide for the East Village History Project, walking tour "Sacred Spaces" of local churches, synagogues, mosques, temples. Lecture/slide show presenter on East Village history. Organizer/facilitator of interfaith gathering and public events for this community, 2008 to present.

Volunteer in several states for political campaigns. 2007 to Nov. 2008, (and previous presidential elections)

Volunteer at the Historic Keziah Lain Family (organic) Farm. (1982 to present)

Manager for St. Vincent's Keener Medical Clinic serving homeless with Volunteers of America 1997-2007

Manager, Field Supervisor, Staff Builders (Home Health Care Agency), 1987-1996

RN Director, Home Health Care trainer, Alliance for Health (Home Care) 1988-1990 (weekends)

RN Field Supervisor/trainer People Care, Inc. (Home Care Agency) 1982-1987

RN, Calvary Hospital (terminally ill, hospice care) 1979-1980

Nursing Medical Assistant, Columbia Presbyterian Hospital 1974-78

Medical Orderly, Nursing assistant, Tubingen University Hospital, 1973

Lead Facilitator and Trainer for the Alternatives to Violence Program (AVP). Prisons, schools, organizations. 1990-1998

Volunteer Mediator for the Courts of NYC, and a founding member of the NYC Mayor's Ad Hoc Committee on Community Mediation and violence prevention. 1990-94.

Teacher Mentor/trainer for Creative Conflict Resolution and peer mediation, NYC Public Schools 1990-91.

Facilitator, Trainer of Trainers for (RC) Re-evaluation Counseling 1974-78.

Assistant Manager, Caribbean Sea Road Company, V.I. shipping company 1973-74.

Vol. community organizing, food cooperatives, non violent civil disobedience training, Chicago 1970-71.

Volunteer work at Albert Schweitzer Hospital, Haiti. summer 1970.

Volunteered in earthquake disaster relief operations in Venezuela, summer 1967

Languages: Decent Spanish, adequate German, some Arabic, less Chinese.

Other Personal: Volunteer at Ground Zero on 9/11, and family centers. Researcher and presenter of Best Practices of Israel's Emergency Preparedness, 2002 and updated. Writer and presenter of Communication Skills and Best Mgmt. Practices in the Work Place, 2000 and updated. Voluntarily traveled to crisis areas (N. Ireland, N. India, S. Africa, Middle East) with conflict resolution and community building presentations, 1990. Developed, created portable hand held device for deaf and language translator. 1987 NYC and Boston Marathons (2'41") 1977-79. Outward Bound Survival Course (included wilderness medic training, National Park volunteer work) summer 1968. Original music recordings 1973 to present.

Anthony Donovan, 120 East 4th Street, NY, NY 10003, (212)388-1008, antoneD@aol.com